MRS. RALPH EUGENE FUNK
the former Miss Peggy Dixon

Wed In Double-Ring Ceremony

The Emmanuel Methodist Church of Amherst was the setting December 23, 1970 at 7:30 p.m. for the marriage of Miss Peggy Dixon to Ralph Eugene Funk.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John H. Dixon of Gladstone. The bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Russell Funk of Madison Heights.

The Rev. Emmett D. Dunnevant of Richmond, uncle of the bride, performed the double ring ceremony before a setting of Kentia palms, an altar arrangement of white pompons and chrysanthemums and cathedral candles in branched candelabra. The family pews were marked with white satin bows.

Miss Linda Dunnevant, cousin of the bride, presented a program of nuptial music and Donnie Dunnevant, also a cousin of the bride, sang "O Promise Me" and "The Lord's Prayer."

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore an elegant gown of crystal white dulcette satin and re-embroidered lace designed with a sculptured Empire bodice. Scalloped lace outlined the high Victorian neckline and banded the long-cuffed Bishop sleeves. Lace accented with seed pearl motifs formed side panels from the neckline to the hem and bordered the controlled skirt which flowed into a sweep train. From a faceframing bandeau of lace with a shaped stand-up Camelot headpiece fell the full chapel length mantilla train of silk net framed in scalloped lace. The bride carried a bouquet of white orchids with streamers on a prayer book.

Attending the bride as maid of honor was Miss Woody Baird of Buckingham. Other attendants were Misses Pat Snoddy, Vickie Pearson, Ginger Baber and Feda Sutton, all of Buckingham. Miss Joanne Dixon, sister of the bride, served as junior bridesmaid. The attendants wore length gowns of holiday green satin with stand-up collars and Bishop sleeves and accented by gold cummerbunds. Each carried a bouquet of red carnations and holly green with red streamers.

Michelle Funk, niece of the groom, served as flower girl. She wore a floor length dress similar to those of the attendants and carried a lace basket of rose petals.

Perry Lee Funk, nephew of the groom, and also Harry Funk Jr., nephew of the groom, all of Lynchburg served as ringbearers.

John M. Dixon II, brother of the bride, served as best man. Ushers were Ashra Funk, brother of the groom, Larry Dixon, cousin of the bride, and Toney Bryant of Lynchburg.

For her daughter's wedding Mrs. Dixon chose a lime green A-line sheath and carried gold accessories. Her ensemble was complimented by a gold orchid.

The groom's mother selected a red coat dress with black accessories, accented by a cymidium orchid.

The bride's parents entertained at a reception in the church social hall following the ceremony. Miss Helen Burcher and Miss Jane Hall of Buckingham registered the guests at the bride's table. Assisting in serving were Mrs. Emmett Dunnevant and Mrs. Neal Stowe, aunts of the bride, and Mrs. John M. Dixon II, sister-in-law of the bride.

For traveling the bride wore a three-piece suit of tan and green tweed, matching accessories and the white orchids from her bouquet.

Mrs. Funk is a senior at Buckingham County High School and plans to continue her education in the field of radiology. A United States Army Veteran, Mr. Funk is presently employed in Lynchburg.

After a southern wedding trip the couple will make their home in Gladstone.
